

The Illusion of a Thinking Machine

Frank: Fang Biqing

Tony : Baxter

Stage0

Frank: Hello, everyone, welcome to Advanced Robotics Laboratory. Today, we have many teams to show their excellent projects with my friend Tony, Oh, he is sleeping, let me wake him up.

Stage1

Frank: Hee, Tony.

Tony: Hi... Frank

Frank: Tony has two arms with seven degrees-of-freedom. So he can behave like human. And look at him, he is stretching himself. And Tony is a member of Baxter family, they now help universities and institutions to do research.

Stage2

Frank: Tony, introduce yourself to everyone.

Tony: Hello, every one! I'm Tony, I am a powerful industrial robot. // I am here to help students learn robotics science with Dr. Juan! // As Frank just said, I have many brothers and sisters. As a live robot, I don't stay here all the time. / I like travelling, last year I visited the Great wall, that's amazing! I was so excited to make many friends those days. And now, I'm making my summer plan to visit Shanghai. Would you like to go with me? Hey how about you?

Frank: Oh, no, no, Tony. We have no time to talk about such things. We have a lot of work today. Many people are waiting to show their projects!

Tony: O - K -

Stage3

Tony: Alright, I'm ready to play with you guys, come on!
